1. Chapter 1

Chapter 1

Son of an Enslaver

Authors note: I Mr. grimjaw don't own Naruto it belongs to Masashi Kishimoto I own nothing.

There was a travelling man with long black hair, black eyes, blue kimono he was going through the leaf. He decided to stop and look around. After all it was a beautiful place to be around.

He got out of the carriage and began walking. Eventually he went to some shops, as he was buying some stuff to take back home, his eyes caught the visage of a young blonde kid. The adorable kid was looking longingly at the candy shop. He didn't know why but his heart broke at the sight.

Deciding to know the kids more closely, he asked, "Boy do you have parents?" The boy looked down and mumbled "No sir I don't. "

The traveler paid for the boy's candy and gave him a ride to the orphanage.

A woman sitting at the desk had gray hair and wrinkled skin skin to her very advanced age. The orphanage was medium sized and the floors were spotless.

"What do you want sir?" she enquired quite rudely.

"Is the orphanage open to adoptions? If yes I would like to adopt this kid. "

She looked down and saw the blonde demon child. Happy to get rid of him, she gave the paper work very enthusiastically and the man signed it.

He stopped at name and asked "boy what's your name?" The blonde eyed boy turned around and said "my name is Naruto Uzumaki "the man put it down. There was a large smirk on his face.

Just as he finished the paper work two Anbu came and said "Sir can you come to the Hokage Tower. Hokage-sama wants to see you as soon as possible. " the now legal father of our protagonist followed the Anbu to the destination .

There the man met the third Horace an old acquaintance. The Hokage sported a gray goatee which suited his image of a learned man. The pipe in his hand line always was burning with the strong Grass country tobacco. " Here read this. It's the truth about Naruto. "

The man read it and he then said "my name is Shiranami Tsuchigumo. I didn't need a piece of paper to know that. But still I am not adopting him for that. He is a very adorable kid. Well mannered too. I won't have such a kid ever and he won't have a father ever. It is a mutually beneficial deal. "

The third shook his head and said "You can take him to his new home. The papers need not be signed".

Shiranami went back to the orphanage to pick up Naruto. His son had already packed his things. Naruto followed his new father to the carriage the Shiranami clan members helped him in.

Then the carriage started making its way to its destination. The rest of the trip was cancelled. Shiranami said, "Son you will be the heir to my organization of slavery. I am the head master and with this power I can do anything. "

Naruto looked at his new father "Dad, where are we going? " Shiranami answered to the land of honey. Naruto fell asleep on his way to the land of honey sweeter dreams had never occurred to him before.

Four days later they were in the land of honey located beyond water country near the island of the Nadeshiko village.

They went towards some big gates entering it without stopping. Naruto looked out the carriage window at how big his new home was.

"Do you like your new home son?" asked Shiranami.

Naruto shook his head yes and they got out and entered the big orange mansion it was four stories high. And it was orange! Naruto was so overjoyed.

Shiranami clapped his hands and two women came up one with blonde hair the other green and they had collars with their names on them, "Yes master Shiranami? "They appealed to their master. They didn't have any work to do at the moment and that could be interpreted as laziness by him. Punishment for that was the most extreme.

"Please take my son's stuff to his room. "both women bowed and took Naruto's stuff to his bed chamber "I have a gift for Isaribi come here!" His voice echoed

A girl around Naruto's age ran towards him. She had long purple hair in pig tails. Black Coal eyes have her a very attractive appearance.

She bowed and said "You called master?"

"Yes I did you now belong to my son Naruto "

She looked up and saw Naruto's blonde hair and sea blue eyes and she was mesmerised by them. It was like she was looking at an angel who had come to get rescue.

Shiranami gave the signal to Naruto to follow him.

Naruto followed his father to the slave hold.

"This is a business son I sell and buy slaves for any purpose. If you want a slave you should come to me. I am the authority in this.

One girl was bent cleaning. Shiranami put his finger in her womanhood she yelped in surprise and turned around.

And she smiled to relieve the tension in the atmosphere "She tight son. It means she's a virgin, your turn" Naruto's dad took his finger out Naruto at first was uncertain but he did and shook his head that he understood.

Naruto asked "dad how about the ones that don't mind?" Shiranami gave a smirk and said "There are many ways to break a slave son" they went to the breaking area.

There were many cells of men and women some were begging for food and water others were being shocked, burned, smothered, drowned from elemental jutsus. Naruto took a mental note of the cool techniques flying around.

They stopped at a cell with a girl she had green hair and golden eyes that was defiant both Naruto and his father went in.

Shiranami smirked got a whip and wrapped it around her neck and began choking her she gasped for air Naruto watched in dismay she then passed out.

"Naruto splash some water on her "said Shiranami Naruto did she woke up and Shiranami whispered in Naruto's ear Naruto then said "give in you wont leave this place "

Naruto took the whip and began wiping the girl she yelled out in pain for hours Intel her eyes became dull and lifeless "good job son "said Shiranami.

After Naruto's first breaking, he called Isaribi. She came and said "Yes master Naruto?" Naruto then said "can you please show me my bed chamber and fix me some food".

"Follow me master" she said with glee in her voice Naruto followed and he went in to his room it was medium sized.

It had a king-sized bed and he was on the fourth floor a mint colored wall tub sink and toilet his bed room walls were orange so was the curtains.

He sat down and Isaribi came in with a stake Naruto began eating and said "this is better than ramen" Isaribi blushed and said "I made it master".

Naruto looked and said thanks!" he then leaned in and kissed her lips. Isaribi face became a shade of red that he had never see note thought possible. Naruto then went to sleep.

The next day Naruto woke up to pancakes from Isaribi "Here you go master" Naruto took it and looked at her rags and he said "After training I will take you to buy clothes. " Isaribi had a bright smile on her face.

Naruto went to the training room where his father waited "You are going to learn my Character Bind Technique" he then sat Naruto down and Naruto practiced too get the writing right. After an hour he got the characters right Naruto's dad then snapped his finger some slaves came out a guy and the other were girls.

"now Naruto use the bind Justu Naruto went thru the hand seal on a orange haired girl she became stiff and not moving Naruto then said "kiss me" the women walked up to Naruto did as he ordered.

He was done then he put a leach on Isaribi Naruto said "all fours" Isaribi did as her master asked and went to the carriage.

Naruto then said "Isaribi how did you become a slave?" Isaribi then gave a frown and sad look "I was born in to it my father sold my mother when she was pregnant with me".

She began to cry Naruto licked her tears and hugged her "how about a maid's suite and when you get older a French maid outfit when you older?"

They went in Naruto looked at the normal maid cloths he bought a lot and some new undergarments "thanks master" Isaribi said.

Naruto took her back to his home she had a collar with her name tag of her name it was purple collar they got out and Naruto said "Isaribi can you fix me a bath and you can have one too ".

She shook her head and headed to his bath room and ran warm water she undressed and got two towels and wash rags. She stripped and waited for her master.
